1 COTSWOLD PLACE, CHALFORD HILL, STROUD, GL6 8EJ

A PERIOD VILLAGE HOME, OFFERING IMMENSE CHARACTER, FANTASTIC FAMILY ACCOMMODATION AND A DETACHED STONE STUDIO.

The property

Nestled in the heart of the village enjoying ease of access to a variety of amenities including the village primary school, lies this pretty, attached Grade II Listed home. Hugely deceptive from the front elevation, the property provides beautifully proportioned family accommodation that is as rich in history character as it is versatile in use. Whilst charming throughout particular mention must be made of the most wonderful and inviting kitchen forming a hub to the house, fitted with bespoke cabinets an Aga and providing plentiful room for entertaining and dining, with a door and mullion window opening to the front courtyard. This is complimented by a cosy sitting room, with oak flooring, and exposed Cotswold Stone fireplace and warmed by a contemporary wood burning stove. Adjoining the kitchen is a study area with a built in desk, beyond which lies a utility/boot room. From the kitchen stairs rise to the first floor. Three bedrooms are located on this level all which enjoy period features including mullion windows, period fireplaces and exposed beams. The two bedrooms positioned to the front of the property also enjoy a dramatic view across the valley. All bedrooms are served by a family shower room. Also located on this floor is a bright and airy living room, from which French doors open to a private paved terrace, sheltered by pergola with a mature vine. The main bedroom suite is positioned on the second floor and truly offers the 'wow' factor, owing in part to its incredibly generous size but also its comprehensive dressing room and ensuite bathroom with free standing roll top bath. French doors from the bedroom also open to the rear garden.
