ELEVATED IN A DESIRABLE COTSWOLD
SETTING. WITH ELEVATED VIEWS, GARAGE AND PARKING.

The property

Situated in the desirable Cotswold village of Chalford Hill, Glendalough is a delightful period property full of charm and character. Set in an elevated position and enjoying excellent privacy, the home boasts southerly views over its garden, village rooftops, and the surrounding wooded valley. This well presented family home offers spacious, flexible accommodation over three floors, ideally suited to modern living while retaining its period features. The main entrance opens into a practical porch which leads into the living spaces. The ground floor offers two attractive and interconnected reception rooms: a sitting room with a stone fireplace with woodburner and mullioned window to the garden, flowing into a formal dining room with its own stone fireplace and electric fire inset. These warm, welcoming spaces are ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. From the dining room, a step down leads into a charming kitchen/breakfast room. Fitted with a range of wall and base units, a range cooker, and an understairs larger cupboard, this inviting space also affords direct access to the garden. A door from the kitchen opens onto a secondary staircase leading to a versatile home office or guest bedroom, offering excellent flexibility. The main staircase rises from the sitting room to the first floor, where two double bedrooms are located to the south elevation. Both enjoy attractive views, mullioned windows, fireplaces, exposed beams, and timber lintels. The principal bedroom also benefits from built-in wardrobes and a sink. A family bathroom with a shower cubicle and separate WC with basin serve this level. A further staircase leads to the top floor, where a bright, spacious open-plan room is currently used as guest accommodation. With exposed A-frame beams, loft storage, and double-aspect windows, it's full of natural light. A connecting door leads to another double bedroom, with similar features. Both are served by bathroom with shower.

Outside

Enclosed by a Cotswold stone wall, the gardens are a real joy, boasting privacy, space for children to play, and mature planting throughout, with plenty of opportunity for the keen gardener. The vendors park one car in front of their garage. The attached garage is currently used as a workshop/utility room, however could offer parking if desired. The gardens enjoy a southerly aspect with views across the adjoining rooftops to the wooded valley beyond. Extensive and vibrant flower borders throughout provide year-round interest and colour, whilst a beautifully maintained Yew tree creates shade in the warmer months. A level lawn provides ample space for play. Beyond lies a productive vegetable patch, shed and greenhouse. A paved seating terrace immediately adjoins the house, creating the perfect spot for outdoor dining, while a Cotswold chipping path allows easy access from the cottage to the vegetable patch, even in wetter months. The property benefits from pedestrian access over the side lane, where a gate opens into the garden.

Situation

Positioned between the centres of Stroud and Cirencester, Chalford is a charming village known for its winding lanes and quaint corners dotted with traditional Cotswold stone homes, offering an abundance of beautiful countryside walks right on the doorstep. Encircled by the picturesque Cotswold landscape, the area combines rural charm with convenient amenities, including the highly reputed Chalford Hill Primary School, Puddleducks Pre-School, a community-run shop, and the popular Pudney Pie Cafe and Lavender Bakehouse. The village and its adjoining communities provide a range of additional facilities such as further primary schools, Thomas Keble Secondary School, and a selection of welcoming village pubs, including an old neighbourhood pub that remains a cherished local institution, offering a cosy atmosphere and a strong sense of community. Within a mile or less, residents also benefit from access to Tesco Express, Frithwood Doctors Surgery, and Eastcombe Stores, while the nearby market towns of Stroud and Cirencester offer a wider range of amenities including independent, state, and grammar schools. The area is well connected, with scenic routes leading to Cheltenham and Gloucester, and mainline railway stations at Stroud and Kemble, both offering direct services to London Paddington.
